Bay, Amtrak, SRC take first step in restoring Coast passenger rail service

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The city of Bay St. Louis, the Southern Rail Commission and Amtrak on Monday broke ground on the new A.D.A.-compliant train platform at the historic Bay St. Louis Depot in anticipation of the long-awaited reactivation of the Gulf Coast Amtrak route.

“This is the first of many steps, we hope,” Bay St. Louis Mayor Mike Favre said Monday. “It’s going to be a great thing, not only for Bay St. Louis, but (for communities) all the way from New Orleans to Mobile.”

The project is “a wonderful example of the partnership” between federal, state and local officials and citizens, U.S. Deputy Secretary of Transportation Polly Trottenberg said Monday. “The local voices here have been really crucial” to the effort.

The Waveland Police Department on Saturday hosted its first “Fishing with the Fuzz” event at Buccaneer Park. Waveland Police Chief Mike Prendergast said the purpose of the event was to “build a relationship with the younger generation and reaching out to the community.”

Prendergast said about 75 children participated in the event, which included fishing and a complimentary lunch.

Prendergast said along with this community event, the PD is also gearing up for the National Night Out event in October.

“What we’re trying to do is put more programs together for kids, something for kids to do,” he said. “We need to build this relationship with kids, give them something to do in this community.”

Waveland PD hosts active shooter training

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Last week, the Waveland Police Department hosted a multi-agency Active Shooter Level 1 Course at Waveland Elementary.

Waveland PD Sgt. Josh Stockstill — who is one of Waveland’s instructors — said officers from Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis, and Harrison County Sheriff’s Office participated in the course.

Waveland Police Chief Mike Prendergast said that, considering what has been going on with school shootings in the nation, this course allows the officers to become familiar with the layout of the school.

Stockstill said the department plans to host trainings a few times throughout the year and is open to hosting it in all the schools.

Stockstill said officers are trained on how to properly enter the building; how to clear rooms; how to engage and or speak to suspects; manage a potential hostage situation; how to deal with the aftermath; and how to deal with teachers, staff, and students.

He said that he has been invited to the Hancock County School District, where he will host a civilian response to active-shooter events course for teachers and staff.

“The average response time of law enforcement nationally is three minutes, so it’s imperative to teach teachers how to react,” Stockstill said.

He added that students can participate in active shooter training as long as they have permission from their parents.

Stockstill said these courses are offered at no charge and are open to the general public.

Interested parties can contact the Waveland PD at 228-467-3669 to find out potential dates of future training courses, express feedback or an interest in hosting an active shooter training course.

Waveland PD thanked Harrison County Sheriff Troy Peterson, Pass Christian Police Chief Daren Freeman and the command of the Bay St.

Louis Police Department for their participation in Tuesday’s training. The PD also thanked the Bay-Waveland School District for the use of the facility.

Officers of the Waveland Police Department on Sunday rescued a man from a possible drug overdose and arrested two people accused of trafficking methamphetamine.

“Waveland officers were dispatched to 9011 Danube Street in reference to a possible drug overdose,” Chief Mi-

While at the scene, Prendergast said, “officers obtained a search warrant and recovered 10 grams of suspected methamphetamine, along with Fentanyl and a .38 revolver.

Rita Marie Netto
Officers arrested Waveland residents

Christopher Glen Gary, 47, and Rita Marie Netto, 54, at the scene, Prendergast said.

Gary was charged with intent to distribute a controlled substance, possession of a controlled substance and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Netto was charged with possession of a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute.

Both suspects were transported to the Hancock County Justice Facility, Prendergast said. Jail records show Gary, who is also being held on a parole violation, has a preliminary hearing in Waveland Municipal Court on Aug. 11. Both Gary and Netto were still in custody on Monday evening.

Local Floral Designer Earns Certification and Invite to Distinguished Floral Group

SEA COAST ECHO

Martha Whitney Butler, CFD of The French Potager in Bay St. Louis, Miss. has been recognized by the American Institute of Floral Designers (AIFD®) as a recipient of its coveted Certified Floral Designer (CFD) designation. Butler was granted this designation after successfully completing the Professional Floral Design Evaluation (PFDE®) that took place on July 3, 2022 immediately prior to AIFD's National Symposium "Roots" in Las Vegas, Nev. Symposium is the floral industry's leading floral design education event. CFD recognition is granted only after a floral designer has demonstrated their understanding of the concepts of design through education and by subjecting their floral design work to a vigorous peer evaluation conducted by an international panel of design experts. In addition to being honored with the CFD designation, Butler's designs and evaluation marks were considered to be so artistic that she has also been extended an invitation to become an Accredited Member of AIFD. Should she accept the invitation, she would be inducted during elaborate ceremonies as part of AIFD's 2023 National Symposium "GROW" taking place July 1 - 6 Chicago, Ill. Members of AIFD lead the floral industry in advancing the art of professional floral design through education. While they are CFDs, they are better recognized by the "AIFD" designation after their names. "The CFD and AIFD professional designations salute a floral designer for his or her artistry and provides consumers with a tool to use for selecting quality professional work," D. Damon Samuel AIFD, CFD, chairman of AIFD's Membership Committee. As part of its recognition program, AIFD will assist consumers in locating a CFD and AIFD qualified floral designer by listing them on its website, aifd.org. Floral designers who achieve the CFD and AIFD recognition will be required to hone their artistry through continuing education in the field of floral design. ## Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service. Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display. We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaise Avenue and Main Street.

"We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Back to School Fun Day, Sunday in the Park focus on education & the future

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Bay St. Louis’ newly-renovated Martin Luther King Park was packed with people over the weekend for “Back to School Fun Day” and “Sunday in the Park,” both of which aimed to help prepare children and their families for the new school year and a brighter future.

The Retrofit organization’s Back to School Fun Day “was a huge success,” Leo Hawkins, president of Da Village community organization, said on social media. “Children from all over participated in Da Village’s first 3-on-3 tournament and got awesome prizes, food and school supplies from Retrofit’s Back to School event.”

Sunday in the Park “was a wonderful event,” Hancock NAACP President Dr. Gregory Barabino said.

While Back to School Fun Day was intended to help provide the materials the children need for a successful school year, Sunday in the Park — sponsored by the NAACP Youth and College Division; Dedicated Men Mentoring; and Positive Black Image Clothing — was about helping build the relationships the children will need as they grow up.

“Our kids need mentors or role models,”

The community celebrated Back to School with a celebration at MLK Park in Bay St. Louis on Saturday, as well as “Sunday in the Park.”

Barabino said. “We’ve got to put people back into relationships where children have access to people who can help guide them. ... It might not always be a family member or a peer, but maybe somebody else who can speak to them objectively.”

Educator Jasmine Haynes spoke on the “education gap.”

“This event was special to me because my family was in the audience,” Haynes said on Facebook. “To hear so many family members say when they heard I was coming to speak they couldn’t miss it warmed my heart. Grateful to be able to use the gift I’ve been blessed with to educate others. I believe this was the first of many to come.”

Barabino said there will be many more “Sunday in the Park” events.

Retrofit will host a free movie night on Aug. 20 at MLK Park.

A voice from my youth

“I’ve never enjoyed anything so much in my life and I’m still getting fan mail from children around the world,” - Pat Carroll on playing Ursula.

If you asked me when I was younger what my favorite movie was, I would almost always tell people that it was Disney’s animated adaptation of “The Little Mermaid.”

I had the soundtrack on cassette tape and I always loved to take my hair brush, pretend it was a microphone, and belt out all the songs as if I were Ariel, Sebastian, or Ursula.

Over the weekend, Pat Carroll, who voiced the movie’s villain Ursula, passed away at the age of 95.

Ursula is probably my favorite animated movie villain. Maleficent comes in at a close second for me, you know the one who puts a curse on the baby princess just because she wasn’t invited to the christening. Such an iconic move.

Carroll’s portrayal of Ursula is just so good, filled with all qualities one would expect from an animated sea witch.

The song “Poor Unfortunate Souls,” is still one of my favorite songs to sing, because it is definitely in my range as an alto and also because the lyrics are just so full of sass and cunning.

“I’m not asking much, just a token really, a trifle! What I want from you is - your voice.

You’ll have your looks, your pretty face.

And don’t underestimate the importance of body language, ha!

The men up there don’t like a lot of blabber
They think a girl who gossips is a bore!

Yes, on land it’s much preferred for ladies not to say word

And after all dear, what is idle babble for?

Come on, they’re not all that impressed with conversation

True gentlemen avoid it when they can
But they dote and swoon and fawn
On a lady who’s withdrawn

It’s she who holds her tongue who gets a man.”

That whole section from the song always make me smile and chuckle — and as I got older, roll my eyes — as Ursula presents the case for Ariel giving

Hancock History Thomas Shields (1783-1827)

Shieldsboro (Shieldsborough) was the official name given to the town of Bay St. Louis in 1818 by an act of the first Mississippi Legislature. The town was originally known or referred to as Bay St. Louis or “The Bay.” However, the name Shieldsboro did not stick after 1875. Indeed, there were fifty-seven years of controversy about which name this little fishing village should embrace. In Hancock County history there are two important men with the same name, Thomas Shields, who were father and son.

In 1790 the Spanish Government granted land to Thomas Shields (father) who was a well-to-do merchant living in Delaware and an early landowner in Bay St. Louis. His son, Purser Thomas Shields, who inherited this land from his father, was a US Navy officer and a war hero in the 1815 Battle of New Orleans. The Mississippi Legislature thought the Shields Family deserved recognition because the father was an early landowner, and the son deserved honor for his courageous naval combat performance, both before and after the aforementioned land battle in Chalmette, Louisiana.

A purser is a quartermaster in the US Navy. Purser Thomas Shields (son) entered the Navy from Middletown, Delaware as a midshipman.

He never retired from the Navy. In 1814 he was the Purser of the Navy contingent stationed at the port of New Orleans. Purser Shields maintained a large storehouse on Ulman Avenue in Bay St. Louis that supplied several US Navy gunboats that patrolled the Mississippi Sound in that era. In addition, he erected a two-cannon battery on the bluff nearby to prevent these stores from being robbed by pirates. These cannon participated in the Battle of Bay St. Louis that resulted in the loss of the gunboat, “Seahorse,” but discouraged the landing of British troops on our shore in Bay St. Louis.

After the land Battle of New Orleans, Purs-

HR 8167 is Wrong for Sportsmen, Conservation, and the 2nd Amendment

Wildlife Mississippi has expressed its staunch opposition to a bill, that if passed, would cripple wildlife conservation permanently not only in Mississippi, but throughout the United States. It would destroy the North American Model of Wildlife Conservation.

H.R. 8167, the so-called Return Our Constitutional Rights Act of 2022, will eliminate the 85-year-old Pittman-Robertson Act (co-authored by the late U.S. Senator Key Pittman, who was born in Vicksburg), a program that helped save white-tailed deer, wood ducks, wild turkey, and other wildlife from near extinction to huntable populations, and continues expanding their populations today. The bill disguises this senseless result by claiming to defend our Second Amendment rights.

Sportsmen—there are more than 780,000 sportsmen and women in Mississippi and 8 in 10 of them state that a candidate’s position on sporting issues is important in who they vote for—are the best promoters of our Second Amendment rights. This is an unbelievably confused bill, yet many members of the U.S. House of Representatives are supporting it. If passed, this bill will destroy the nation’s most powerful wildlife conservation funding program in the name of the Second Amendment, contrary to the wishes of the Second Amendment’s strongest supporters. Our ethical exercise of these rights is inseparable from the wildlife conservation programs this bill will eliminate.

The Pittman-Robertson Act redirects a user-supported federal excise tax on firearms, pistols, ammunition, and archery equipment to state wildlife managers. This is the nation’s most successful wildlife conservation funding program and it is the envy of the world. The bill would essentially “gut” funding for the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries, and Parks. It would change the funding mechanism to an already unpopular tax on oil and gas leases from public lands and waters, even for non-coastal states. Furthermore, game conservation programs, such as those for deer and turkey, would no longer be funded; funding would be shifted to non-game programs.

Pittman-Robertson has generated over $15 billion—$116 million to Mississippi alone—to conserve wildlife, enhance public recreational shooting opportunities, acquire state wildlife management areas for hunting, fund hunter education programs, provide technical assistance to private landowners, and recruit America’s next generation of hunter-conservationists. In 2021 alone, over $1.1 billion was raised and distributed for on-the-ground funding for state wildlife agencies.

Without the funding, advocacy, and input from sportsmen, wild places and wild things would not exist in the health and abundance they do today that all Mississippians, and all Americans, enjoy. This bill has recommitted hunter-conservationists to explaining and reminding elected officials of this fact and what makes wildlife and habitat conservation work not only in our state, but throughout our great Nation.

up her voice to the sea witch in return for being turned into a human so she can be with Prince Eric. The real “Little Mermaid” tales are definitely much darker than Disney’s adaption of the story. It actually is more realistic in a sense — well as realistic as a story about a mermaid and sea witch can be — because not everything in life plays or ends like a Disney movie. I always loved Ursula’s aesthetics: The bright blue eyeshadow, the bright red lips, and her curvy purple body. As a plus-sized young adult, I loved watching her character flaunt her curves with pizzazz and confidence. Turns out her character was inspired by another favorite of mine, the drag queen Divine whose real name was Glenn Milstead.

Divine appeared in most of John Waters’ films, which I also immensely enjoy watching. Sadly, Divine passed away in 1988, a year before the film’s release. Carroll’s voice was perfect for the character, much like Robin Williams was born to play the Genie in “Aladdin.” They are people who will always be associated with their memorable roles. Carroll also starred in another favorite musical of mine, the 1965 film adaptation of Rodgers and Hammerstein’s “Cinderella,” with Lesley Ann Warren portraying Cinderella, Ginger Rogers as the Queen, and Celeste Holm as the Fairy Godmother. Carroll played one of the evil stepsisters. The songs in “Cinderella” are also very well-written and so much fun to sing along to. Carroll also lended her vocal talents to the English adaptation of the Japanese film, “My Neighbor Totoro,” by Hayao Miyazaki. Whenever someone passes away whose voice is synonymous with my adolescence, I always feel a bit sad. Yes, I know I didn’t know them personally, but like I’ve said before, there are some actors and actresses who are so good at what they do, that their performances become a source of comfort, joy, and escape. Sometimes, when I’m feeling low and need uplifting, I will play and sing along to an endless array of Disney songs or stream a favorite television show again. I just recently finished another viewing of “The Sopranos” in its entirety. And what a legacy to leave behind. Along with her other accomplishments, Carroll will forever be remembered by the millions of poor unfortunate souls who adore Ursula the sea witch. or command cannon batteries or a flotilla of gunboats. Purser Thomas Shields and his sailors/seamen harassed the British as they retreated or withdrew through Lake Borgne to their large ocean-going vessels anchored off Ship Island. Moreover, Shields netted 132 prisoners and eight watercraft, whose total tonnage was similar to the five American gunboats they had lost in the Naval Battle of Lake Borgne, that preceded the Battle of New Orleans in Chalmette, LA. Thomas Shields married Ellen Blanchard Ker (1800-1828) at their summer house in Bay St.

Louis in 1816. Ellen was born in Fredericksburg, Virginia and married Thomas at age sixteen. They had five children. Thomas died in 1827 and was buried in New Orleans in the old Girod Street Cemetery. Ellen remarried soon thereafter Thomas’ demise, but sadly passed away one year later. The “USS Shields (DD-596), a Fletcher-class destroyer, was a ship of the US Navy named for Purser Thomas Shields, who fought in the Battle of New Orleans and the Battle of Bay Saint Louis. The “USS Thomas Shields (1944-1972)” served in World War II and the Korean War. Finally, in 1972 the destroyer was sold to the Brazilian navy.

GAIL RALSTON BAKER HUNT

It is with a heavy heart to share that our mom, Gail Ralston Baker Hunt, passed away July 1st, 2022. She was 87 years young and had been living in Kingsland, GA for the last 5 years. She was born November 23rd, 1934 to Margaret Thurman and Leonard Lee Ralston in Oklahoma City, OK.

She is preceded in death by the love of her life, James E. Hunt, Jr. They were married for 55 years. She is also preceded in death by daughter, Cary Allison Hegg and son, James E. Hunt, III. She is survived by her brother, Christopher Thurman Baker; her sister, Jeanne Brantiff Baker; her children and their families: Kelly and Charlie Jinks; Shannon and Rupert Wood; Cathy Kessler; Steven and Angela Hegg; Stephanie Huff; eleven grandchildren; several great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Gail grew up in Oklahoma and Texas. In high school, she worked on the school newspaper and student council election campaigns, and in college, she was an active member and eventually president of the Pi Beta Phi sorority, enjoyed bowling, and was involved with several student activity committees. She was grateful for the opportunity to attend and proud to graduate from Southern Methodist University, in Dallas, TX. After teaching elementary school at St Monica's in Dallas, on October 7, 1961, she married James Edward Hunt, Jr, a Captain in the US Army who had just returned from an assignment in Berlin as a tank commander. Gail and Jim started a family right away that included four daughters and one son. For a few years early on, her teenage twin siblings joined them and were adored by their young children.

With Jim's career, the family moved from Texas to Louisiana, Ohio, Annapolis, Connecticut, Virginia, New Jersey, Atlanta, and eventually back to Dallas. Gail volunteered with every neighborhood, school, sports team, children's summer camp program, art group, etc. -- sharing her organizational skills and enthusiasm with everything that her children were involved with. No neighborhood or parent group went without the appropriate holiday parade and picnic, field day, or informational newsletter!

Gail loved to play tennis and worked as a legal secretary, even starting her own company, Office Solutions, with the first home computer available for word processing. She loved learning and put that into practice, always upgrading her hardware and software to keep up with the needs of local law firms.

Gail and Jim retired to Diamondhead, MS

where they lived for over 20 years. They were active especially with the POA, Diamondhead tennis, the Diamondhead Youth Programs, several of the area Catholic churches, and some of the rebuilding efforts following Hurricane Katrina. After losing Jim, Gail moved to Kingsland, GA. Gail was always the center of keeping the family in touch with each other. Her joy was spending time with her children and grandchildren, making sure everyone enjoyed the Gulf Coast with fishing, boating, tennis, and anything going on that included "kid fun". She stayed active when she moved to Kingsland, joining several organizations, always taking on a leadership role with creating newsletters and providing communication.

Gail was a friendly soul, loving people and always wanting the best for everyone. She will be greatly missed!

Services to honor Gail will be held at the Calvary Hill Chapel and Cemetery in Dallas, Texas at 1:00 pm on Saturday, August 6, 2022.

The Gospel of John

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

The Gospel of John is the fourth of the gospels in the New Testament. It is also very different from the other three in several ways. It tends to speak in more theological terms. Although it does contain accounts of events in the life of Jesus, some of these events seem to point beyond the actual physical moment to spiritual truths which lie at the heart of the human condition.

The Gospel begins with a philosophical approach. Some people have referred to it as the third creation story in the bible. The first two are found, of course, in the book of Genesis. John, on the other hand, is a part of the gospel narrative. It is interesting to note that Genesis 1 and John 1 each begin with the same three words; “In the beginning”. Genesis 2:4-ff begins with a slight difference in wording, “In the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens...”, but the essence is pretty much the same.

“In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God.” For the writer of the gospel, “word” was not just something which was spoken or written. Instead, it was the essence of everything. It was the beginning and end of knowledge, the beginning and end of wisdom, and it was even the beginning and end of creation. It was, in his mind, the very breath and mystery of God.

Lest we wander too far into the theological weeds, it is important to find our footing in the real world of the day. At the time of this writing (probably the late 1st or early 2nd century) the Christian faith was still a very young, and really, a not yet established movement. It could not really be called a church, although some may have been trying to employ that word. It was far on the outside of any kind of traditional religion. Most of society did not know what to make of these followers of “the way” as it had become known to some. People did not know whether to think of it as another radical political movement, a mystic cult, or just a bunch of crazies.

John humanizes Jesus. He feeds multitudes. He meets with a skeptic in the dark of night. He counsels a woman of ill repute in Samaria. He violates rules. He takes liberties with the sabbath. He sometimes seems to harbor his own doubts, when in one place, he asks his disciples if they are thinking of going away. He was often in trouble with not only civil authorities, but religious leaders as well.

Through it all Jesus seemed to be able to offer grace, heal hurts, enjoy fellowship, weep for a friend, wash the feet of the disciples, and struggle with the prospect of his own suffering. All these very human experiences and emotions were lived with authenticity while holding to a spiritual center which sustained him to the end.

This is what theologians call “incarnation”. “He became flesh and dwelt among us.” Yes, it is mystery. It can be interpreted in many ways. Sometimes we do get lost in the weeds. Mostly we are thankful for the life, love, and grace which he represents.

MS announces Red Snapper reopening date, updates for Greater Amberjack and Gray Triggerfish seasons

SEA COAST ECHO

Red Snapper season for the state of Mississippi will reopen for private recreational anglers and state for-hire vessels seven days a week beginning at 12:01 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 12, 2022, and will close once the annual catch limit (ACL) is projected to be met.

In addition to Red Snapper season reopening, NOAA recently announced an emergency rule that will shift the 2022 recreational fishing season for Greater Amberjack. The adjusted season will begin September 1 and close October 31. The recreational season for Gray Triggerfish will remain consistent with previous years and is anticipated to reopen August 1.

One angler per vessel, per trip is required to report through the MDMR Tails n' Scales system. As a reminder, Marine Patrol officers encountering anglers fishing for or possessing Red Snapper without a trip authorization number will result in fish confiscation and fines. While the seasons coincide with Red Snapper openings, anglers will also be asked to report Gray Triggerfish and Greater Amberjack.

Anglers may register their account through a smartphone app available in the Apple App Store and Google Play Store or online at tailsn-scales.org. Tails n' Scales administrators can be contacted for assistance by email at snapper@dmr.ms.gov or by phone at (228) 325-1585.

Private recreational anglers can fish out to 200 nautical miles. Vessels with state for-hire permits can fish in state territorial waters, which is nine nautical miles south of the barrier islands.

The Mississippi Department of Marine Resources is dedicated to enhancing, protecting and conserving marine interests of the state by managing all marine life, public trust wetlands, adjacent uplands and waterfront areas to provide for the optimal commercial, recreational, educational and economic uses of these resources consistent with environmental concerns and social changes. # Booker Fest scheduled at 100 Men Hall

SEA COAST ECHO

The 100 Men Hall hosts its third annual Booker Fest to celebrate the musical genius of James Booker on Friday, September 2 thru Sunday, September 4, 2022. The festival is Bay Saint Louis' own music festival with top musicians and performers, food trucks and a drag brunch!

James Carroll Booker III (December 17, 1939 – November 8, 1983) was a New Orleans rhythm and blues keyboardist born in New Orleans, LA and raised by an aunt in Bay St Louis where he attended St. Rose de Lima and learned classical piano. Booker's unique style combined rhythm and blues with jazz standards. Musician Dr. John described Booker as "the best black, gay, one-eyed junkie piano genius New Orleans has ever produced." The gifted artist played on the historic stage of 100 Men Hall and throughout the Bay.

The September weekend will include a night with Joe Krown Trio, a morning gospel tribute by St. Rose de Lima, a piano tribute to Booker led by two of New Orleans piano greats, Josh Paxton and Joe Ashlar, followed by spoken word artist Sunni Patterson, then the award winning voice of Quiana Lynell and her band, a good time with comedian Rita Brent, all while screening Lily Keber's acclaimed documentary on Booker, Bayou Maharajah, AND ending the weekend with an outrageous Drag Brunch by Catastrophe, Zamareyah, Latonia and Misty in Booker's honor. Sound by Jesse Loya.

Rachel Dangermond, owner of 100 Men Hall, credits the support of multiple sponsors for Booker Fest's production, "The 100 Men Hall is grateful to our long time major sponsor, the Silver Slipper Casino, with additional sponsorship from Mississippi Gulf Coast National Heritage Area, Coldwell Banker Alfonso Realty, as well as donations from Ann Madden Photography, Hollywood Casino, Cathead Distillery, and Shoofly Magazine. Their support is making this event possible."

James Booker was born James Carroll Booker III on December 17, 1939, in New Orleans, and was influenced by his church and Baptist minister parents and grandparents, who played piano. Booker was a child prodigy who loved classical music (especially Bach) and part of his amazing skill lay in an ability to blend a Rachmaninoff tune with a rolling blues piano riff. After his father became ill during Booker's early childhood, he and his sister Betty Jean were sent to live with his aunt in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

Opening the event on Friday night will be the Joe Krown Trio – Krown is a resident of New Orleans with a home in Pass Christian. He is a New Orleans-styled piano and Hammond B-3 player. He has played the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage every year since 2001 and the French Quarter Festival every year since 1998. From September 1996 to June 2001, Joe held the Traditional Piano Night slot at the Maple Leaf Bar in New Orleans, which was once occupied by James Booker. After the untimely passing of the legendary great Allen Toussaint in November 2015, Joe was selected to fill the maestro's chair by playing piano with Toussaint's band backing up greats like Bonnie Raitt, Aaron Neville, Irma Thomas, Dr. John and more at the 2016 New Orleans Jazz Fest, Hollywood Bowl, Midsummer swing at Lincoln Center and more. He has played the WWOZ Piano Night every year since 1996 to current and has been the producer of Piano Night since 2017. He has led a trio with Walter Wolfman Washington since 2007. Krown has toured with Mavis Staples, Allen Toussaint, North Mississippi All-Stars, Charlie Musselwhite and many more and toured in over 50 countries as either a member of the Kenny Wayne Shepherd Band, Clarence Gatemouth Brown Band or as the featured artist. Listen: <https://youtu.be/D51r62xINJg>.

Saturday's lineup includes: St. Rose Gospel Choir - Considered the best Southern Gospel choir in the region, the St. Rose choir was already a Bay Saint Louis institution when James Booker played there. Several members sang when Booker played in the choir. The choir has been featured in the gospel tent at the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival.

Josh Paxton - In a city known for its piano players, Josh Paxton stands out from the crowd. By combining New Orleans' deep piano traditions with modern jazz twists, classical technique, and a funky rhythmic drive, he creates a unique and memorable style that led Dr. John to describe him as "[freakin'] blessed." Josh moved from his native Ohio to New Orleans in his early 20s to study with jazz patriarch Ellis Marsalis. After earning his degree, he quickly found himself in demand as a solo performer and sideman, playing solo sets at festivals in and out of town, and touring and recording with such diverse acts as the Wild Magnolias, Li'l Queenie, the Cosmic Krewe, Maria Muldaur, and Bruce Hornsby. And by doing the first written transcriptions of the music of piano legends Professor Longhair and James Booker, he solidified his reputation as a serious scholar of the city's musical heritage. Listen: <https://youtu.be/Q-Kj8ySDv1M>.

Joe Ashlar - Pianist and organist Joe Ashlar has been performing music professionally around the US and internationally since age ten. He has studied with Barry Harris, Dave Santoro, Bruce Barth and Dr. Lonnie Smith. Joe is a regular on the New Orleans music scene, playing Hammond organ for music legend Dr. John. In addition, he stays busy with studio work, and locally can be seen with many notable artists, including Stanton Moore, Johnny Vidacovich, George Porter Jr., Donald Harrison, Steve Masakowski, Eric Lindell, Bonerama, Good Enough for Good Times, Papa Mali, Corey Henry, and Evan Christopher. These musical experiences also earned him a nomination for Offbeat Magazine's 2017 Best of the Beat Awards in the "Best piano/keyboardist" category. His music has been featured on national television, including CBS, BET on Jazz, and MTV. Joe also spends time writing original music, having composed the score for Brian Berkowitz's first short film, "Secret Transit Codes." Listen: <https://youtu.be/LbCcYNp6mJk>

Sunni Patterson - New Orleans Native and Visionary, Sunni Patterson, is an internationally acclaimed Poet, Performer, Workshop Facilitator, Certified Spiritual Life Coach/Consultant, and an Initiated Priestess and Minister.

She began her career as a full-time high school Teacher, and much of her life since has been devoted to serving as a Cultural Worker and Activist. Armed with an engaging story and voice, Sunni deliberately uses art, poetry, and praise (Ancestral remembrance) to encourage dialogue, connectivity, spiritual awareness, and healing. Listen: https://youtu.be/JdHg\_XbZRU.

Quiana Lynell – A full-range vocal southern belle who hails from Texas but has planted her musical roots in that jazz haven called New Orleans, is that next great singer that you'll be hearing about. The power and electric intensity that Lynell brings to the stage in a live performance as she brought to the table at the 2019 Playboy Jazz Festival, is a page taken straight from the great singer playbook. She ripped it. A protegee of jazz master Terence Blanchard, Lynell is what you would call a storyteller through song. Growing up on gospel music and being influenced by Fitzgerald and Vaughan, Lynell took her big-sounding voice and has made good use of it. Listen: <https://youtu.be/H2SS3z8IZvA>.

Rita Brent - Rita Brent is a comedian, musician, and military veteran from Jackson, Mississippi. She discovered her love for music as a young girl performing in talent shows and southern Baptist churches as a drummer alongside her mother and singer-pianist, Angela. She credits her mother as the one who helped cultivate and support her talents. At age 18, she joined the 41st Army National Guard Band where she served for nine years and ended her time in service as a sergeant. Rita graduated from her beloved HBCU, Jackson State University, with a Bachelor's Degree in Mass and Speech Communication, and pledged Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated. Listen: https://youtu.be/nqL7tE\_xR6w.

Sunday will feature the 100 Men Hall's favorite and most talented drag queens - Miss Catastrophe Nicole Knight, Zamareyah Dawn, Misty Bordeaux Knight, and Latonia Love. Booker loved to dress up in flamboyant costumes and often wore a wig. He would joke or flirt with a guy in the audience while playing. He would engage in lengthy dialogues with the audience – or lecture or even scold it. He was a consummate performer, cross dresser, and musical genius.

Screening in the VIP room throughout the Fest, is a documentary directed by Lily Keber, Bayou Maharajah chronicles the life and music of this colorful, troubled figure, legendary in New Orleans but obscure elsewhere. The film features extensive performance and interview footage of Booker, who died in 1983 at age 44. "I've got some blues that contains old soul with new wrinkles," the pianist says in a clip featured in the trailer, perhaps referencing the way his style seamlessly incorporated classical, jazz and gospel.

In his 20s, Booker worked with the touring bands of B.B. King and Aretha Franklin and in 1970, mysterious trouble led Booker to lose his left eye; afterwards he began to don an iconic eye patch. Attendees will be able to purchase

‘Queens of the Court’ kick off the athletic calendar

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

It has been quite some time since a game was held in the area but this weekend kicks off what should amount to a busy schedule in the area. The sport of volleyball is the first one up to begin a season. This is an early look at Bay High, Hancock, and Our Lady Academy on the court.

BAY HIGH TIGERS

The Bay High Lady Tigers have new mentorship for the 2022 season in head coach Logan Lockard. The former collegiate volleyball player inherits a young team to mold comprised of two juniors and nine sophomores. Last year Bay High finished with a record of 6-12.

Lockard commented, “Over this summer, we have put in a tremendous amount of work. We have spent hours developing and honing skills. We are wanting to advance the Bay High Tigers volleyball program to the next level. We have a young team that can mature in the program which gives a bright outlook for the amount that we can grow.”

The Lady Tigers return a solid core of players including Maddie Snowden, Mackenzie Graham, Nadia Lewis.

Bay High will be part of Division 8-4A competing with Pass Christian, Moss Point, Stone, and Poplarville.

Lockard added, “I am hoping to give these girls what I have received from the sport. I live the sport and have a passion for it. We have to give our all to the sport and it will return it to us. We are excited to get started.”

HANCOCK LADY HAWKS

The Hancock Lady Hawks enter year four under the guidance of Lysie Gayden. Last year, the Lady Hawks advanced to the second round of the Class 6A state playoffs and the goal is to go further this year.

Last year Hancock finished 22-8 and fell to Ocean Springs in the quarter-finals.

Gayden commented, “I am very excited about this season as the girls that started with me as freshman are now seniors. It has been a blessing to watch them develop. They have put in countless hours developing and we feel very good about our direction this year. We return almost all of our starters from a year ago. We are ready to make a long run this year.”

The Lady Hawks return Alexa Palmer, Peyton Russell, Nina Wedgeworth, and Kansas Alexander to lead the squad. Other older players providing depth include Allie Peterson, Madelyn Patton, and Taryn Rush.

Gayden added, “We had a great summer season playing at PRCC which helped us to create some depth with the younger players moving up.”

The Lady Hawks will compete in Division 8-6A with Biloxi, Gulfport, and Harrison Central.

OUR LADY ACADEMY CRESCENTS

If there is a program synonymous with championships, it is OLA volleyball. The Crescents have captured 14 state titles in the sport since 2002 and competed in 18 state finals.

The goal is the same this year, as it is every year, and that is to win a state title. Last year, the Crescents came within an eyelash of claiming the title advancing to the state finals of Class 3A and falling to Alcorn Central. The Crescents ended 2021 with a 22-10 record.

Head coach Emily Corley returns a strong contingent of players including Avery Matheson, AnnaLaura Williford, Ava Alonso, Laney Fletcher, Marley Kinniburgh, Julia Hoffman, Kinsley Jean Stegall, and Myah Favre.

Corley stated, “Our seniors and returning players are providing great leadership bringing along the younger players. We played in two summer leagues and team camp at LSU. That gave us a tremendous amount of time on the court and in 6-on-6 competition.”

The Crescents will be part of Division 8-3A competing with West Marion, St. Patrick, Tybertown, and Perry Central.

Corley added, “We have a more well-rounded rotation this year. We have had a great summer program and I am excited to get this season started and let our girls compete.”

This year volleyball will take three teams from each division to the postseason which equates to an extra round of playoffs. The Southern Classic Tip-Off tournament in Jackson marks the beginning of the season this weekend. Hancock and OLA will be competing in the tournament. The regular season begins on Tuesday, August 9.

Shore Thing: Well Ritten Stories

Shore Thing Fishing Report

By Cpt. Sonny Schindler

I think met Peter Ritten in the late 80’s? Always a quick witted goofball, he and I have remained friends for several decades. His brother Jon and wife Julie helped us buy our first and second home. Their daughter Laura Grace was our daughter Margot’s sitter for many years. We have a history.

Peter moved away not long after graduating college, and we both got busy with our families, our jobs and life. This past year, Peter has gotten bit again by the fishing bug. Back in the high school days, we spent countless days in his old Boston Whaler fishing out front. I treasure those memories, but it’s time to make some new ones.

Every few weeks, when time/work/family allows, my old buddy Peter comes back down from Atlanta. If the weather is fishable, we’re going fishing. Some trips he brings his brother Jon, sometimes his daughter Brett, sometimes his Sister in law Julie makes an appearance. I gotta say, despite mother nature’s best attempts at ruining our fun, we have an absolute blast.

None of these trips are meat hauls. We have had great success with the speckled trout, white trout and redfish. They usually keep enough for dinner, I’ll sometimes keep a few, or we tag and release the rest. Peter is more about trying out new lures, fishing different areas, or just plain ole fishing. The yacht rock trivia has become a staple in all of our trips. Peter and I are very good at it, but Jon Ritten is unbeatable.

Once you’ve experienced The Mississippi Gulf Coast, it just has this draw, that always brings you back. The beaches, the food, the scenery, the people, and yes the fishing are just some of the things that keep bringing folks back.

I have thoroughly enjoyed fishing with my good friend Peter. We spend a lot of time telling stories

from days past. I’ve also enjoyed creating new memories. One thing for certain, all have been well Ritten...

As always, have fun and be safe.

• BACTERIA

oidosis is a rare disease caused by Burkholderia pseudomallei. These bacteria were identified in soil samples from the Gulf Coast of Mississippi (MS).

The investigation was conducted because two individuals (cases) of melioidosis – both on the Gulf Coast – became sick two years apart. Soil samples collected around the patients’ homes tested positive for the bacteria at the CDC. This indicates that bacteria from the environment was the likely source of infection for both individuals and that the bacteria have been present since 2020.

State Epidemiologist Dr. Paul Byers says most cases that occur in the US are because of travel to other countries where the bacteria have been known to normally occur.

“Typically, we see these bacteria in countries where the bacteria are endemic or where it normally occurs. Burkholderia pseudomallei normally occurs in tropical and sub-tropical areas like Southeast Asia or Central or South America. Because of the identification of this bacteria on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, persons at high risk for severe infection living on the Gulf Coast should take recommended precautions.”

Melioidosis is an infectious disease and is caused by direct contact with Burkholderia pseudomallei in contaminated soil or water. Symptoms include fever, joint pain, and headache. Infection can lead to pneumonia and blood infections (sepsis).

Most healthy people who come into contact with Burkholderia pseudomallei never develop melioidosis. Individuals living on the Gulf Coast who have chronic illnesses such as diabetes, chronic kidney disease, chronic lung disease, or excessive alcohol use may be at risk of severe illness from infection and need to take precautions to protect themselves.

Those at risk should: Avoid contact with soil or muddy water – especially after heavy rains.

Protect open wounds with waterproof dressing.

Wear waterproof boots when gardening, doing yard work or agricultural work – it is critical to prevent infection through the feet and lower legs (after flooding or storms).

Wear gloves to protect your hands when working directly with soil.

said Monday, “and we’re eternally grateful for it.”

The passenger rail restoration project has been in the works since early 2016, when members of the SRC, Sen. Roger Wicker and then-Gov. Phil Bryant conducted an Amtrak tour from New Orleans to Jacksonville, Fla., stopping in Bay St. Louis and other points on the Gulf Coast along the way.

The city of Bay St. Louis has been working with county, state and federal officials to secure funds for needed updates at the Depot grounds and throughout the district to accommodate the new service.

Once the service is operational, Ross said, there will also be stops in Gulfport, Biloxi and Pascagoula.

Ross said the service would be a huge boon for Bay St. Louis, bringing two trains a day in from New Orleans, and two trains a day in from Mobile.

He credited Bay residents Nikki Moon and Kay Kell with being instrumental in helping get the service going. Moon is the former owner of the Bay Town Inn and former president of the Coastal Mississippi tourism board. Kell is a long time member of the Souther Rail Commission.

“They’ve been leading the way on this and without them here, today doesn’t really count.”

Ross said there’s still no firm date for when the Amtrak service will resume, but said he was “confident” the National Transportation Safety Board would resolve the issues between Amtrak and CSX soon.

“It’s in the hands of the Transportation Board,” Kell said last week, but “We’re very optimistic and we’re trying to get as ready as we can be so that when we get the green light that we can go,” then the service can immediately begin.

“We’re the first project of all the depots,” Kell said.

Thomas L. “Todd”

Stennis, III, senior manager at Amtrak, said Monday that making the Bay Depot ADA-compliant is just Phase 1 of the project.

Under Phase 2, he said, “We’re going to come back and (overhaul) the entire platform.

That will be in the next two to three years, after the service is up and running.”

NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE PROPOSED BUDGET AND PROPOSED TAX LEVIES FOR THE UPCOMING FISCAL YEAR 2023 FOR THE CITY OF DIAMONDHEAD, MISSISSIPPI

The City of Diamondhead will hold a public hearing on its proposed budget and proposed tax levies for Fiscal Year 2023 at 6:00 p.m. on August 16, 2022 in Council Chambers at City Hall located at 5000 Diamondhead Circle, Diamondhead, MS 39525.

The City of Diamondhead is now operating with projected total budget revenue of $7,902,777 (39 percent) or $3,118,250 of such revenue is obtained through ad valorem taxes. For the next fiscal year October 1, 2022 ending September 30, 2023, the proposed budget has total projected revenue of $5,118,150. Of that amount, (60 percent) or $3,068,500 is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

The decision to not increase the ad valorem tax millage rate for Fiscal Year 2023 above the current fiscal year’s ad valorem tax millage rate means you will not pay more in ad valorem taxes on your home, automobile tag, utilities, business fixtures and equipment and rental real property, unless the assessed value of your property has increased for Fiscal Year 2022.

Any citizen of the City of Diamondhead is invited to attend this public hearing on the proposed budget and tax levies for Fiscal Year 2023 and will be allowed to speak for a reasonable amount of time and offer tangible evidence before any vote is taken.
